

Monday Market Report: 08/24/2021

Happy Monday everyone! The good news continues for anyone looking to spend some money on plywood anytime soon. Pricing is down closer to “normal” trading levels, but OSB pushed up for the first time in two months. That could mean we’re nearing the bottom, but that remains to be seen.

Lumber continues to push down in most regions and species, but southern yellow pine has held and pushed up in some cases for several weeks especially in 2” dimensional and 4” timbers. Decking and boards have started to come down a little bit, but 1” s4s lumber is still well above the rest of the regional market pricing on forestry items.

Please feel free to reach out to me with any specific questions or feedback on the Report or anything else in the world of lumber. The entire Lodge Lumber team is dedicated to being a valued partner to our customers, vendors, and to our community. We look forward to talking with you all soon!
